

2A Newsletter

April 16-20, 2012

Language Arts

We will be reading "The Lizard and the Sun" a folktale by Alma Flor Ada. Our comprehension skill this week will focus on using details from a story and from real life to make inferences.

Spelling and Phonics

Our phonic skill this week is the long vowel /a/ea, ei(gh), ey. Examples of the words are break, sleigh, they, steak, eight, obey, great, and neighbor.

Math

We will be sorting solid figures, and comparing solid figures and plane shapes.

Social Studies

We will be comparing the traditions and customs of different cultures, and recognize that people from many cultures have contributed to American society.
