

2A Newsletter

February 27-March 2, 2012

Language Arts

We will be reading a nonfiction selection, "Watching in the Wild" by Charnan Simon. Our comprehension skills will focus on using graphic aids to read and interpret information.

Phonics and Spelling

Our phonics skill this week is the r-Controlled Vowel /ar/air, are and contractions. Examples of the spelling words are hair, glare, fair, scare, care, share, and chair.

Math

The students will be modeling and solving problems that have to do with elapsed time. Please continue to practice telling time with your child. We will begin Chapter 15-Understanding Time. The students will be sequencing months, and finding dates on a calendar.

Science

We will be reading about animals that are endangered and extinct, and begin Unit D-The Sun and Its Family.
